

Suicide

Personal    Political    Financial    Business

For decades I was under impression that suicide was not a viable option. That opinion has not changed; however, today I have a total different view as to why suicide is not a viable solution to one's personal issues. Unlike political, financial and business suicide, personal suicide is a life ending event that will condemn a soul to non existence.

Many over time have stated to be closer to God one needs to know that of suffrage and sacrifice. Taking of one's soul by deliberate taking of one's own life is not that of sacrifice.

A drug pusher cares not whether one lives or dies so long as the money flows. We only need to look at the front page of many of the nation's newspaper and note that most, if not all electoral candidates are seeking a flow of money. A money changers survival depends upon a flow of money. There is nothing wrong with earning a fee from a transaction that aids humanity; however, many transactions were executed by financials in detriment to humanity. To avoid prosecution, a flow of ill gotten money is provided by evil to a once respected legal field. When the flow of money ceases, evidence of political and financial suicide will be rampant. For those that follow the money, they have already chosen a path to Satan's house. Suicide is within the devils equation but such is not within God's equation. Life ain't easy and there was no roadmap or instructions manual provided, therefore, we rely upon one's own inner soul for guidance. It ain't easy to believe in what one cannot see or touch; but when one chooses money over humanity, one has chosen to follow Satan's path to damnation.
